Old Dominion University ("the University") is committed to the development of its students, fostering an environment that is safe, secure, and inclusive. This commitment encourages student accountability, academic integrity, student engagement, and success. All students must follow the behavioral standards of the Code of Student Conduct ("the Code"). These behavioral standards are embodied within core values, including personal and academic integrity, fairness, respect, community, and responsibility. The student accountability process exists to protect University interests and educate and respond to students and student organizations.

- B. Promote an environment that provides the best academic integrity and learning experiences.
- C. Facilitate a fair and equitable process to hold students accountable for violations of the Code.
- D. Provide a safe and secure environment for all students.
