Student Advancement Committee Meeting
Board of Visitors
December 6, 2012

The Student Advancement Committee of the Board of Visitors met on Thursday,
December 6 at 10:30 a.m

Kevin Muchiri, Student Representative to the Board of Visitors, provided an update on the Monarch Citizenship Campaign, which challenges students to be responsible, engaged and proud of all they do on campus. Activities students engaged in included the Project Purple dinner in October, where former NBA player Chris Herren, who lost his professional career to a drug addiction, was the guest speaker. Additional activities were the Monarch Millionaire, offering students lessons in financial literacy, Monarch 2 Monarch Mentoring, and Sleep-out for the Homeless, a program to raise awareness of homelessness.
