Mr. Bradley commented that some of the revisions being made may impact the Board s for future meetinger example, the Board receives data on on graduation and retention rate its Dashboards, but there is no discussion by the Board on how those rateMnay be impro-Smith noted that she, Amanda and Donna have already discus hadvitg aneothfiliance checklist for the Board once the Bylaws are revised in order to ensure that the Board is of things it is supposed this dDickseski added that the Governance Committee would take of the role for ensuring that the Board meeting agendas include the appropriate topics to e compliance. Meeks stated that the University already has a compliance database that in Board compliance issues, so that checklist can be pulled out of that, extisting that base noted by Ms. Dickseski, the fidelity of what equals compliance may change.

The Committee reviewed the highlighted sections and discussed specific sections, as note

Mr. Bradley asked about the added provisions under Article I, specifically the responsibilit Board for establishing regulations or institution policies for Ms. Smith noted that they are recommending that the Board establish a Conflict of Interest in addition to the added Section 3.10 in theoBylawsneet SACSCOC requirements. Mr. Wright explained that Board members containelyheir office to discuss possible conflicts and a determination is made whether they need to recuse themselves from discussion are from votingn related Board matTens proposed policy would also authionizsity Counsel to review the submitted Financial Disclosure Statements for possible conflicts of that may arise an aid to Board membles use the ultimate responsibility remains with the individual Board member to disclose suchMontClient expressed his concern that this may be adding another step that might be outside the norm of unistensitigenories. Another issue relates to the composition of the Executive Committee meeting, which is comprised of the officers and the chairs of the standing committees,
