This document clari es the responsibilities and privileges associated with accepting local administrative rights for the computer system listed.

Administrative capability is limited to workstation (model and serial #): _____

Your local administrator account username is _____ and the password is blank. You will be prompted to create a password for your account at the rst login.

This account will allow you full administrative rights on the local machine. Once accept ed, you take full responsibility for the software on this machine. ITS will only be able to provide limited support for the operating system and installed software applications.

By accepting this agreement:

- You understand that your workstation con guration may not be compatible with future ODU systems or technologies. This may prevent the use of required systems